The best of both worlds...

As you make your way down the established, tree-lined street to Kildare Court, you appreciate the location and the wonderful sense of community.

With a 24-hour emergency call system, along with access to other activities, amenities and services, such as hairdressing, from the aged care home next door.

Peace by the sea meets city bustle. If you love the sea and gentle strolls along the beach, yet also love a vibrant city, Kildare Court ticks all the boxes – both are close by.

A supportive community

Maroubra is a warm and vital community and Kildare Court is very much a part of it. Kildare itself has plenty going on. You can enjoy meeting people, join in the many events and get-togethers onsite. Alternatively, local clubs and restaurants provide an opportunity to meet the locals and join in community activities. If you like to keep to yourself, you can do that too, safe knowing that a supportive community is at hand. The choice is yours.

Entertainment abounds

When your friends and family visit, entertainment options abound. You have your own private unit with patio to make a nice lunch or dinner, or you can use the garden courtyard. Alternatively, visit the many local restaurants, providing a variety of cuisines. Take a picnic to the beach where your grandchildren can play in the surf and rock pools. If it's live entertainment you want, see what is on at the nearby Juniors where activities are aplenty, all under one roof.
