

Cardinal Gilroy Village

MERRYLANDS RETIREMENT COMMUNITY

Feel right at home...

Generous, well-maintained grounds, trees and gardens rise to meet you on entering Cardinal Gilroy Village, emitting a safe, established, homely, atmosphere. The large complex has 238 self-contained units, all with garden access to sit and enjoy.

Your independent unit comes with a 24-hour emergency call system plus a comprehensive range of optional services are available. You can also be part of the regular events and functions at the onsite community centre.

With a bus stop conveniently located inside the village, you're just minutes from Merrylands Shopping Centre and Parramatta with great restaurants, shopping, cinemas, theatres and cultural events. You'll never be bored living in Cardinal Gilroy Village!

Staying connected and feeling secure in a truly village-style environment is what this friendly, relaxed community has to offer. You can be independent staying safe in the knowledge that great community services are right on your doorstep.

Community opportunity knocks

While you can be totally independent, the benefit of Cardinal Gilroy Village is the social events that offer outings, sausage sizzles, musical performances, guest speakers, morning teas and more. There's always something going on where you can meet your neighbours, share a cuppa and have a chat. You can be involved as much or as little as you like. The choice is yours!

Much to do!

You'll never be short of things to do. Join in the onsite activities with neighbours or head out to nearby Merrylands or Parramatta where a smorgasbord of events and activities awaits. Beautiful Prospect Nature Reserve is only 12 km away with lovely green open spaces by the water where you can enjoy a BBQ picnic, take a walk, or bike ride if you wish. Variety is the spice of life, and this is truly on offer so there is never a dull moment.

More time for the things you love
